

September 4/Day 247

Ezekiel 24

Verses 1-2

- Wow! What information do the time references give us in this passage?
- Remember, Ezekiel is in exile so these time references are in regard to the exile. In the ninth year, tenth month, tenth day of the exile of Israel, the northern kingdom.

Verse 3

- We saw in chapters two and three that the rebellious house is referring to God's people. They were religious but not righteous.

Verses 4-6

- Remember, the bloody city is Jerusalem.

Verses 7-14

- We have seen God change His mind in previous passages, but what does God say in verse 14 about relenting or changing His mind?

Verses 15-24

- What happened in this passage?
- What does God call Ezekiel's wife in verse 16?

Verses 25-27

- How is Ezekiel's wife's death a sign to God's people?

Ezekiel 25

Verses 1-7

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verses 8-11

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verses 12-14

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verses 15-17

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?
- Do you remember which book we recently saw prophecies to all these nations?

Ezekiel 26

Verses 1-6

- What is the timing in this passage?

Verses 7-14

- Who would conquer Tyre?
- What kinds of weaponry are mentioned in this passage?
- What new word do we see in verse 12 that gives us insight into how they lived?
- What cultural information do we see in verse 13?

Verses 15-16

- What will happen to the princes?

Verses 17-21

- What name of God do we see in this passage? Lord with lowercase letters is “Adonai”, meaning “master”. Its root means father. So, this is Adonai YHWH.

Ezekiel 27

Verses 1-3

- Remember, a lamentation is mourning and grief.
- This passage takes on the identity of a ship. It's beautiful. Enjoy.
