

October 25/Day 298

Luke 10

Verses 1-12

- If you just opened the Bible and began reading here, how would you know to what “after this” is referring? After what?
- How many men did Jesus appoint? How did He send them out?
- What does the phrase “lambs in the midst of wolves” mean?
- What should the people provide at the place they stay and why?
- What did Jesus give them the authority to do in these cities?
- What did Jesus think about the cities that rejected these men?

Verses 13-15

- What had happened in Chorazin and Bethsaida?
- Did the people in these cities repent?
- Why do you think Capernaum is mentioned? Think about it.

Verse 16

- Is there any application for us in verse 16?

Verses 17-20

- How were the demons subject to the seventy? This is important.
- What did Jesus say He witnessed? When was this?
- Why did He say they should rejoice?

Verses 21-22

- What is the contrast here?

Verses 23-24

- Why were they considered blessed?

Verses 25-29

- What did Jesus answer to the man regarding eternal life?
- What did the man ask in order to justify himself?

Verses 30-37

- This is the passage we would call The Good Samaritan.
- In what way does Jesus answer the lawyer's question by telling him this story?

Verses 38-42

- Where did Mary focus her attention?
- In what way was Martha distracted?
- Was there anything wrong with seeking to be a good hostess?
- Why was Martha annoyed?
- Who chose the necessary and good part?

John 10:22-42

Verses 22-30

- What do we learn about the seasons in regard to the Feast?
- Why did these men not believe Jesus was the Christ?
- List the things He says about His sheep?
- What does verse 30 say?

Verses 31-42

- If the Jews picked up stones to stone Him, does this imply they understood what He was saying in regard to His deity?
- The religious men believed Jesus was blaspheming, so what were they seeking to do to Him?
- What does verse 42 say about Him?
- Have you noticed the religious men rejected Him, but the common men accepted Him? Is there any application for us?

See you tomorrow.
