- What was the purpose of feeding them with manna (something they did not prepare with their own hands)?
- What happened to their clothes over these forty years? Their feet?
- What was God doing, according to verse 5? Remember, discipline is training, not punishment; although punishment can be a part of discipline.

- How does the rest of this passage apply to us today?

Verses 6-14

- What did the LORD say the people were like?

- Where did he place them?

Verses 6-9

- Who ministered in place of Aaron when he died?

Verses 10-11

- After Moses spent another forty days and nights on the mountain, the LORD relented and told him to proceed where?

Verses 12-22

- What does verse 17 say the LORD does not do?
- Why were they to show love to aliens/foreigners?

- Review how verse 20 says God's people are to treat Him.
- What does He say He is in verse 21?
- What does He remind them in verse 22?

See you tomorrow.
