

August 11/Day 223

Jeremiah 14

Verse 1

- What information do we gain in verse one?

Verses 2-3

- What was in the cisterns?

Verse 4

- Why was the ground cracked?

Verses 5-6

- In what way do the animals suffer due to our sin?

Verses 7-12

- After all we have seen throughout all we have read, why does the LORD say He will not listen to their cry? We know His character is good and compassionate and He loves these people, so why?

Verses 13-16

- What were the prophets saying? What kind of prophet does this make them?
- Where did they get these prophecies?

Verses 17-22

- Who controls the rain?

Jeremiah 15

Verses 1-2

- What were their options in regard to their destiny?

Verses 3-4

- Name the four kinds of doom.

Verses 5-7

- Why would they be bereaved and destroyed?

Verses 8-14

- Many have a hard time reconciling God's anger with His love, but think about it, as a parent, if your children are doing something that can hurt them, doesn't it make you angry? Wouldn't they need consequences?

Verse 15

- Jeremiah is praying here.

Verse 16

- What does it mean that he "ate" God's words? This is figurative. Ezekial uses similar language.

Verse 17

- Well, this verse hits home!

Verses 18-20

- How would the people respond to Jeremiah's prophecy?

Verse 21

Jeremiah 16

Verses 1-4

- What would happen to children born in the land?

Verses 5-9

- What would be eliminated before their eyes?

Verses 10-13

- Who declared the calamity?

- What would happen to them in regard to this calamity according to verse 13?
- Does it seem like they may get their fill of serving other gods?

Verses 14-15

- But there's good news. What will He do after this?

Verse 16-19

- Has this happened?

Verses 20-21

Jeremiah 17

Verse 1

- What is listed in verse 17 that tells us about the culture?

Verse 2

- We may think remembering their children would be a good thing, but what had they done with their children?
- In what way are we doing this to our children in this generation? There may be more than one way that comes to mind.

Verses 3-5

- What happens when we trust in people for help?

Verses 6-8

- What is the person who trusts in the LORD like?

Verse 9

- Many quote this verse in regard to believers but Scripture says a believer has a circumcised heart and also that there is no condemnation for the believer. (Romans 2, Ezekiel 36, Jeremiah 31, Hebrews 8, Romans 8).

Verse 10

- What does the LORD know about us?

Verses 11-13

- Remember the passage where the cisterns were empty? Where do we find living water?

Verse 14

- Where does healing come from?
- Where does salvation come from?

Verses 15-18

- What was happening to Jeremiah? Why do you think this was happening?

Verses 19-23

- Did they listen to the word about the Sabbath?

Verses 24-27

- What would happen if they listen to God?
- What would happen if they don't?
- What is the application for us?

See you tomorrow.
