

August 23/Day 235

Jeremiah 49

- Continuing with Jeremiah's prophecies to the nations.

Verse 1

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verse 2

- What time reference is mentioned here?

Verses 3-6

- What will the LORD do AFTER the destruction?
- Are we seeing a pattern?

Verse 7

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verses 8-10

- Remember, the father of Edom is Esau.

Verses 11-14

- What is an envoy?

Verses 15-22

- "Swoop like an eagle". Does this happen swiftly or slowly?

Verse 23

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?
- Where is this city?

Verses 24-27

- What will happen to the walls?

Verse 28

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verses 29-32

- What will happen to the animals of those who are conquered?

Verses 33-34

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verses 35-39

- Elam is in Southern Iran.

Jeremiah 50

Verse 1

- To whom is this prophecy addressed?

Verse 2

- Think about this, why would they declare to the nations Babylon has been captured? Why would they care?
- Marduk was the chief god of the Babylonians, also known as Baal.

Verses 3-5

- What is the time reference here.

Verse 6

- What has happened to the people?
- What have their shepherds done?

Verses 7-20

- What will God do to the King of Babylon?

Verses 21-25

- What does it mean that the LORD has opened up His armory?

Verses 26-31

- Why is the LORD against them? Hint: the answer is within the name He calls them.

Verses 32-39

- What large bird is mentioned here? I ask this to cause you to think about the environment of the time.

Verse 40

- Who overthrew Sodom?

Verses 41-43

- How does the King of Babylon feel about the report?

Verses 44-46

- Who will hear the report, “Babylon has been seized”?

See you tomorrow.