

July 19/Day 200

2 Kings 18:1-8

Verses 1-6

- Who becomes king of Judah in this passage?
- What was he like?

Verses 7-8

- What are we told about him in these two verses?

2 Chronicles 29

- This is the parallel to the passage above.

Verses 1-4

- What did Hezekiah open? Do you remember who had closed them?

Verses 5-11

- What does the “therefore” tell us in verse 8?
- What did Hezekiah purpose in his heart?

Verses 12-19

- What were some of the first reforms implemented by Hezekiah?
- The valley of Kidron is outside the city. It leads to the Garden of Gathsemane. It is a place of final judgment according to Joel.
- What time reference is mentioned in verse 17?

Verses 20-24

- What started happening again in this chapter?

Verses 25-28

- What was re-instituted in this passage?

Verses 29-30

- What did the king and everyone with him do in these verses?

Verses 31-36

- When the assembly began offering sacrifices again, were the priests able to handle the load?
- What did they do?
- What does the last phrase in verse 35 tell us?
- How did the nation feel about this in verse 36?

2 Chronicles 30

Verses 1-9

- Who did the king decide to invite to Passover?
- What will the LORD do if they returned to Him?
- What is the application for us?

Verses 10-12

- How was the invitation received?
- What do you think it means that God gave Judah one heart?

Verses 13-22

- The Feast of Unleavened Bread is Passover.
- Did the LORD pardon those who participated in Passover without consecrating themselves? Why? Who prayed for them?

Verses 23-27

- What did the assembly decide to do once they received pardon?
- Why did the assembly experience so much joy?

2 Chronicles 31

Verse 1

- Finally, the altars and the Asherim are removed. Do you remember reading about good kings and bad kings, but even the good kings didn't remove the items of false worship?

Verses 2-10

- Hezekiah continues his reforms.
- What does verse 10 tell us?

Verses 11-19

- What was going on in this passage?

Verses 20-21

- How would you like it if these last two verses summarized your life?

Psalm 48

- Enjoy this song to the LORD.

Verses 1-14

- Would our music be the same or different if we sang about all the accomplishments of the LORD on our behalf?

See you tomorrow.