

February 22/Day 53

Leviticus 26

- Welcome to the last day of Leviticus.

Verses 1-13

- What is this passage about?
- What kinds of things will happen if God's statutes and commandments are kept?
- What will God confirm?
- Where will God dwell?
- Where will God walk?
- What had God already done for them?

Verses 14-20

- If God's covenant is broken, who did the breaking?
- What will happen if God's covenant is broken by Israel's disobedience?

Verses 21-22

- What is their disobedience like to God?
- In what ways will He judge them?

Verses 23-26

- If the things in the last passage didn't work to turn them back to God, what will He do?

Verses 27-33

- If the things in the last passage didn't work to turn them back to God, what will He do?
- For what are high places and incense altars? So, how then, did they break God's covenant?
- Knowing what you know from history about the nation of Israel, have they been scattered among the nations? Have their cities become waste?

Verses 34-39

- What will the desolation cause the land to enjoy?
- Does it appear any people will be left? What will the people be like?
- What will happen among the nations?

Verses 40-45

- What two things are mentioned as their sin against God?
- Iniquity is serving God our way without regard to His statutes. Unfaithfulness is idolatry.
- What kind of heart is mentioned in verse 41? Remember this.
- What will cause God to remember His covenant?
- Though God must judge them for breaking His covenant, does He ultimately reject them?

Verse 46

- Summarizing the instructions given at Mt. Sinai. So, were just the Ten Commandments given there?

Leviticus 27

Verses 1-8

- Are vows taken seriously, especially difficult vows?
- How were valuations made? More below.

Verses 9-34

- Congratulations on finishing Leviticus. See you tomorrow.
